KATALIN KUNTNER

ENVIRONMENTAL MANAGER/GEOGRAPHER

PERSONAL PROFILE

I am a dedicated environmental professional with experience in various energy and sustainability related fields. I am seeking opportunities where I can utilize my knowledge in practical projects and foster positive changes.

COMPETENCIES & SKILLS

- System thinking, holistic thinking
- Organization and attention to detail
- Motivated, driven by a desire to develop knowledge and expertise
- Team player
- QGIS
- Excel, Word
- Hungarian - Native
- English - Fluent
- Japanese - Conversational

CONTACT INFORMATION

✉ kuntnerkatalin@gmail.com

📞 +36-20-223-5195

in @ katalinkuntner

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Visiting Research Fellow

Wuppertal Institute for Climate, Environment and Energy, Germany (2019-2020)

- Part of the Energy transition: coal phase out research for the EU Commission
- Conducted data mapping using QGIS
- Developed good-practice case studies

Graduate Teaching Assistant

Kyoto University, Japan (2018-2019)

- Provided support for various graduate and undergraduate classes

Community Energy Intern

Cumbria Action for Sustainability, United Kingdom (2017)

- Analysed survey results and wrote case studies
- Conducted multiple interviews for research purposes

ACADEMIC HISTORY

Kyoto University, Japan

Environmental Management MSc, 2019

- Focused on community based renewable energy projects
- Member of Conserv'Session (Organizing documentary screenings and expert talks about conservation related issues)
- Member of École de Kyodai (Campus sustainability organization)

Eötvös Loránd University, Hungary

Geography BSc, 2016

- Specialized in Environmental and Landscape Geography
- Focused on district heating systems that run on renewable energy sources
- Member of Bükk-Leader research group

AWARDS

German Federal Environmental Foundation (DBU) award
2019

MEXT Scholarship award
Research and degree program, 2016

JASSO Scholarship award
2009